Joshua 5:10-12

While the sons of Israel camped at Gilgal they observed the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month on the desert plains of Jericho. On the day after the Passover, on that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain. The manna ceased on the day after they had eaten some of the produce of the land, so that the sons of Israel no longer had manna, but they ate some of the yield of the land of Canaan during that year.

Deuteronomy 26:16-19

“This day Adonai your God commands you to do these statutes and ordinances. You shall therefore be careful to do them with all your heart and with all your soul. You have today declared Adonai to be your God, and that you would walk in His ways and keep His statutes, His commandments and His ordinances, and listen to His voice. Adonai has today declared you to be His people, a treasured possession, as He promised you, and that you should keep all His commandments, and that He will set you high above all nations which He has made, for praise, fame, and beauty, and that you shall be a holy people to Adonai your God, as He has spoken.”
