

BT Kid's materials: Acts Vision of the Sheet

<https://davidwilber.com/articles/acts-ten-peters-vision-and-unclean-animals>

Here is commentary from a Messianic follower about the meaning of the vision which contrasts with typical Christian teachings. I am pulling materials mostly from Christian materials which must be adapted. I don't always know or catch everything and am still learning differences myself. Please share sites we can use for children from a Messianic perspective if you know of them. Please adapt materials accordingly. Let me know if I missed a major difference so I won't include those materials again.

Here is a Messianic resource that Lisa Smith shared with me. It follows the Torah Cycle and also has materials for the Feasts. <https://ymtoi.org>

Elizabeth Ellinger has reminded us that FFOZ has recently posted children's and teen's materials. The digital versions are free. There is a cost for printed copies. <https://ffoz.org/kids>

Here are some materials for this week's teaching:

poster of clean/unclean animals – I blacked out “old” law on ours. I included these pictures not because that is what the vision is about but because this is mentioned in the story. This would be the time to talk about how some think the vision is about animals, but it is not, and then explain Jews vs. Gentiles in relation to the message of Clean and unclean

And on the following day they entered Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends. When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him. But Peter lifted him up, saying, "Stand up; I too am a man." And as he talked with him, he went in and found many persons gathered. And he said to them, "You yourselves know how unlawful it is for a Jew to associate with or to visit anyone of another nation, but God has shown me that I should not call any person common or unclean. So when I was sent for, I came without objection. I ask then why you sent for me." (Acts 10:24-29) picture of a cow describing aspects of a clean animal. I used only the first page due to the others referencing the old and new laws pictures of Peter and Cornelius with activities – the vision is fun but not our main message – don't forget to act out the rest of the story! (next page images)

Ideas for acting out the vision and activities for the rest of the story:
