Discussion Questions:

1. What difficulties has God turned into opportunities and blessings for you?
2. Like the believers in Philadelphia, you, too, may be living in an insecure area. How do you cope with the instability of your location?
3. What “open doors” has He placed before you? What doors has He shut?
4. How has God used your “little power” (of time, talent, or treasure) to become His Good News blessing?
5. How have you resisted the pressures of fear, guilt, or shame to keep from denying His name?
6. How might it be evident to non-believers that you belong to Messiah?
7. What does it mean to be a “synagogue of Satan”, and how can we avoid being such?
